History

Background note on Melvin L. Gurtizen:

Melvin Lewis Gurtizen was born on November 17, 1923 to Charles R. and Ethlyn Taylor Gurtizen of West Chester, PA<sup>1</sup>. He graduated from West Chester High School in 1941 with interests in photography, radio and trumpet playing<sup>2</sup>. After registering for the draft in 1942<sup>3</sup> he went on active duty in the Army in 1944 serving overseas in the European Theater until August of 1945<sup>4</sup>.

Returning to the United States, he became an active member of the West Chester Camera Club where he met professional photographer Ned Goode. In 1949 Joseph W. Belt was retiring and Gurtizen had the opportunity to purchase his studio at 31 W. Gay Street<sup>5</sup>. For the next 50 years he was the town's portrait, wedding and commercial photographer. He was well known for taking photographs of many local organizations. "Shorty" as he was called, always had a cheerful grin and a joke to make his subjects smile.

Gurtizen advertised a full range of services including Passport photos, copying of oil paintings, color postcards, advertising photography for brochures, industrial and aerial photography. He offered albums and pictures frames. Gurtizen was a member of the Guild of Professional Photographers of the Delaware Valley<sup>6</sup>.

In October of 1950, Gurtizen was recalled to the Armed Forces during the Korean War. While away, Gurtizen put Walter Shaw of Downingtown in charge of his business<sup>7</sup>. Gurtizen married Shirley Walleigh July 14, 1951; at the time he was stationed at Fort Meade, Maryland<sup>8</sup>. Returning to West Chester, he continued in business on Gay Street until May 1966 when he relocated to 136 N. Church Street, West Chester<sup>9</sup>.

Shorty and Shirley Gurtizen enjoyed 47 years of marriage and had four children. His wife assisted him in his studio with the clerical work until her death in 1999. He was a member of the Green Hill Chapel in West Chester. Melvin Gurtizen died on September 28, 2000<sup>10</sup> and was buried in the Birmingham-Lafayette Cemetery.

Collection Scope and Content note:

The Melvin Gurtizen portrait collection consists largely of proofs and extra finished prints not purchased by customers made between 1949 and 1957. Included are studio portraits of children, families, and individuals as well as passport pictures. Some of the photos were taken to be used in store advertisements, such as Klein's "Bride of the Week" and Joyce & Don's Shoe Store columns.

Personal Contributors

Gurtizen, Melvin L., photographer

Arrangement

The collection has been maintained in its original order using the photographer's numbering system. The collection was received by the Society in its original envelopes. All information has been transcribed to the archival storage envelopes. Many of the names are spelled phonetically by the photographer, so it behooves the researcher to explore variant spellings. Also, the envelopes are often labeled with the name of the person who ordered the work, rather than with the name of those who are pictured. Obvious examples of this are noted in the inventory with an explanation in square brackets.

This guide includes an inventory and personal name index. Volunteers provided their support in producing it. The indexing was done by Lois Bassett, data entry by Dolly Newport, print and negative housing by Chris Flammer, Bailey House and Lois Bassett.
