Administrative/Biographical History

Background note: The reference prints were contact printed from the original glass plate negatives by CCHS volunteer Mary Painter in the CCHS darkroom. Most of the prints were made using Ilford Multigrade paper and Kodak chemistry.

Biographical note : Joseph H. Thorne, 1849-1916 was born about 1849 in West Chester to Benjamin and Anna M. Williams Thorne. His father served in Company E, 124th Regiment of the Pennsylvania Volunteers during the Civil War. His two younger siblings, Benjamin and Anna, lived their entire lives in West Chester and were unmarried<sup>1</sup>. Joseph married Annie, the daughter of Captain Francis Guss and the couple had no children<sup>2</sup>.

In his professional life, Joseph Thorne learned the printing trade with Major E. B. Moore of the American Republican newspaper. In 1868 he went to work for Taylor & Hickman, and became the foreman at F. S. Hickman printing company. In his obituary, Thorne was called one of the best printers in West Chester<sup>3</sup>.

He was a member of the First West Chester Fire Company and the West Chester Methodist Church. He died from a stroke March 5, 1916 at age 67 at his home 425 S. Church St., West Chester. He is buried in Oaklands Cemetery<sup>4</sup>.

Wilmer Worthington MacElree, 1859-1960, was a well known West Chester lawyer, orator, writer, artist and wood carver. He was the son of James and Mariah Buffington MacElree. He graduated from West Chester High School and Hunter Worrall's private school. After studying law in the office of John J. Pinkerton, Esq. MacElree was admitted to the Chester County Bar in 1880. His legal practice continued until 1957. He served two terms as Chester County District Attorney from 1897-1906.

MacElree was the author of eight books and five pamphlets on historical and religious topics. He was a member of First Presbyterian Church in West Chester. He married Ella Eyre, a school teacher and daughter of David Eyre. The couple raised two sons and three daughters, they were Judge J. Paul MacElree, Mary Eyre MacElree, Wilmer H. MacElree, Margaret MacElree, Helen MacElree Stevenson. There were six grandchildren and eighteen great-grandchildren at the time of his death at age 100<sup>5</sup>.

Scope and Content

This collection of 342 glass plate negatives is largely the work of Joseph Thorne, 1849-1916, a printer living in West Chester, Pennsylvania taken between about 1886 and 1910. An amateur photographer, Thorne photographed West Chester and vicinity. His collection also includes some photographs of his family, home and printing office.

Included in the collection are views taken in E. Bradford Township of Abiah Taylor's House, Bower's Paper Mill, Ingram's Mill, a schoolhouse, Strode's mill, an Old Indian Fort and Shaw's Bridge. Sites in Birmingham Township include Sager's Mill, Brinton's Mill, Painter's Bridge, Birmingham Park, Osborn's Hill, Birmingham Friends Meeting, Brandywine Battlefield and monuments in Birmingham-Lafayette Cemetery. Views in Delaware County include Ridley Creek, Pyle's Twin Bridges and Haddock's house in Glen Mills.

Other topics include foxhunting, an eclipse of the sun, marker for Duffy's cut in Malvern, Hershey's Dam and Eachus' Mill in W. Goshen Twp., the Downingtown Log House, Lenape

Forms

Dry Plate Negatives, 1890-1910

Cyanotypes, 1890-1900

Personal Contributors

Thorne, Joseph H.. 1849-1916

MacElree, Wilmer Worthington, 1859-1960

Arrangement

The glass plate negatives were received in their original sleeves, but were unnumbered and in no particular order. The negatives were cleaned and sleeved by CCHS and numbered. An artificial topical arrangement was imposed on the prints for ease of access.

Access and Use

Access restrictions: Patrons are welcome to view the reference prints in CCHS library reading room during library hours. Glass plate negatives can be viewed by special arrangement with the Photo Archivist on the light table in the Photo Archives office. Call 610-692-4800 for an appointment.

Acquisition Information

The Thorne glass plate negatives were found in the collection. Joseph Thorne donated a number of photographs to CCHS in July 1893 according to the newspaper clippings file.

Preferred Citation

Related Material

Some photographs in this collection were published in W.W. MacElree's "Along the Western Brandywine" or "Down the Eastern and up the Black Brandywine." Both of MacElree's books on the Brandywine were printed by F. S. Hickman, Joseph Thorne's employer. According to an article in the Daily Local News<sup>6</sup>, W. W. MacElree took many of the views used in his books. Some of the photos were used as models by Gatchel & Manning of Philadelphia for their pen and ink drawings included in the book. On a few occasions the original photo was used in the book.
